

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
Begins to listen and respond appropriately to familiar adults and their peers.	Begins to listen and respond appropriately to a wider range of adults and their peers.	Frequently listens and responds appropriately to adults and their peers.	Frequently listens and responds appropriately to adults and their peers.	Can listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers.	Can listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers.
Looks at the person speaking.  Answers questions: 'Yes, that's my favourite too.' May need encouraging to expand on their answers, for example after nodding or replying with a single word response.	Looks at the person speaking.  Understands how to answer questions in full sentences. 'Yes, I like that character too.'	Maintains eye contact stopping anything else they may have been doing.  Responds politely to questions and offers examples to questions, such as qualifying with because: 'Yes, I like that character because'	Maintains eye contact stopping anything else they may have been doing.  Responds politely to questions and offers examples to questions: 'Yes, I like that character too. Mainly because of'	Listens actively maintaining eye contact. Responds to affirm: 'I think that too' and to deepen understanding: 'That's interesting, is it also the case that'	Listens actively maintaining eye contact.  Responds to affirm: 'I think that too' and to deepen understanding: 'That's interesting, is it also the case that'  Uses gesture and body language (e.g. nodding) to show their engagement.

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Begins to ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge.  'I don't understand x, can you help me?'	Begins to ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge.  'I don't understand x, can you help me?' 'I've finished, what should I do now?' 'Is this right?	Frequently asks relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge.  Such as seeking to clarify knowledge: 'Is this an example of a traditional tale?'	Frequently asks relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge.  Such as seeking to clarify knowledge: 'Is this an example of a traditional tale?'	Can ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge.  Such as making links across a subject area or drawing several strands of information together 'Is that the same as x?' 'Do you think this is similar to when we found out about?'	Can ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge.  Such as making links across a subject area or drawing several strands of information together 'Is that the same as x?' 'Do you think this is similar to when we found out about?'
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Begins to use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary.	Begins to use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary.	Frequently uses relevant strategies to build their vocabulary.	Frequently uses relevant strategies to build their vocabulary.	Can use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary.	Can use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary.
Uses classroom and personal word banks.  Begins to apply what has been learned, for example when a word begins with un- it's meaning is the opposite of the root word; words that end in -ed are likely to be verbs.	Uses classroom and personal word banks, and dictionaries.  Begins to apply what has been learned, for example knowing that the suffixes -er and -est build comparative adjectives.	Uses word banks, dictionaries and thesauruses.  Makes links to morphological spelling work to identify word families such as teach, teacher, teaching, teaches, headteacher.	Uses word banks, dictionaries and thesauruses with growing confidence.  Makes links to morphological spelling work to identify word families such as teach, teacher, teaching, teaches, headteacher.	Uses dictionaries and thesauruses with increasing effectiveness. Uses relevant strategies such as their knowledge of prefixes to work out the meaning of words.	Uses dictionaries and thesauruses effectively.  Makes links between words using morphological and etymological knowledge. E.g. 'I know chrono comes from Greek and it means time. I can assume chronologically means in time order'.

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Begins to articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions.	Begins to articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions.	Frequently articulates and justifies answers, arguments and opinions.	Frequently articulates and justifies answers, arguments and opinions.	Can articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions.	Can articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions.
Begins to use 'because' to make simple justifications drawing on personal experiences.' I like dogs because my Nan has one'.  Begins to disagree politely. E.g. maintains a polite tone of voice.	Uses 'because' to make simple justifications. Draws on personal experiences and opinions. 'I like this book [about zoos] because I like animals'. Uses sentence stems to support polite disagreement e.g. That's interesting but I think	Uses 'because' and the immediate evidence to support answers, arguments and opinions. E.g. 'I think zoos are cruel because in this book it says'  Begins to offer opinions that aren't their own. This could be through role play.	Uses 'because' and immediate evidence to support answers, arguments and opinions. E.g. I think zoos are cruel because in this book it says  Is able to present an opinion that is not their own after planning work and discussion with their peers/ the teacher.	Uses generalised evidence to support their point of view rather than a wholly personal response. E.g. Some people would argue that It's my opinion and that of several others that	Uses evidence from a range of sources e.g. (generalised knowledge and personal opinion) to justify their answers. This may take the form of several points E.g. 'Some people would argue that In this book it says Furthermore, this video shows that Therefore, I think'

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Begins to give well-	Begins to give well-	Frequently gives well-	Frequently gives well-	Can give well-	Can give well-structured	structured	structured	structured	structured	structured descriptions,	descriptions,	descriptions,	descriptions,	descriptions,	descriptions, explanations and	explanations and	explanations and	explanations and	explanations and	explanations and narratives for different	narratives for different	narratives for different	narratives for different	narratives for different	narratives for different purposes, including for	purposes, including for	purposes, including for	purposes, including for	purposes, including for	purposes, including for expressing feelings.	expressing feelings.	expressing feelings.	expressing feelings.	expressing feelings.	expressing feelings.
Use storymaps to recall events.  Use simple adverbials of time to order events (e.g. first, next, after that).  Express their own feelings using some simple emotional language.	Use graphic organisers to support talk for different purposes (e.g. timelines to retell chronological events).  Use simple conjunctions to support descriptions, explanations & narratives (e.g. and, but, so, because, if).  Use an increasing range of emotional language to describe their own and others' feelings (synonyms for simple emotional language).	Organises related information using graphic organisers such as spider diagrams and mindmaps to help.  Begins to summarise the main points.	Organises related information and links it logically, e.g. with adverbials of where, when, how and how many.  Summarises the main points.	Uses personal notes to help them recall and describe key events and descriptions.  Thinks carefully about how ideas are linked together to create cohesion across and within sections. May use planning templates to help them do this.	Can share a complex narrative for example, multiple characters, several events or a non-chronological structure.  Can talk in detail about topics. For example, including many points that are linked cohesively.

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Begins to maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments.	Begins to maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments.	Frequently maintains attention and participates actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments.	Frequently maintains attention and participates actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments.	Can maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments.	Can maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments.
Responds to questions and comments when prompted.  Takes turns as directed in group or whole class discussions.	Understands the need to take turns. Uses signals such as a raised hand to show their intention to contribute in a class discussion.  May need to use sentence starters or other classroom prompts to help with their responses.	Appreciates the need to take turns.  Uses prompts and sentence starters to encourage other children to participate.	Participates in group and whole class discussions.  Ask questions of other children.	Understands how to encourage conversation in others.  Participates enthusiastically.  Begins to take different doles in group discussions (e.g. chairperson, scribe, summariser).	Can take different roles in group discussions (e.g. chairperson, scribe, summariser).  Builds on the contributions of others.

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Begins to use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas.	Begins to use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas.	Frequently uses spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas.	Frequently uses spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas.	Can use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas.	Can use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas.
Takes a personal approach: 'I think'	Takes a personal approach: 'I think…' or after group work: 'We think…'	Conditional clauses may be used to support speculation, e.g. 'If x happens'	Begins to make generalised speculations as well as personal ones: 'Some people think'	Uses generalisers: 'some people think' or 'it could be possible to'	Uses generalisers: 'some people think' 'it could be possible to'

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Uses role play including classroom areas such as the home corner, to imagine and explore ideas.	Uses props such as small world figures and puppets to explore and imagine ideas.		Conditional clauses may be used to support speculation 'If x happens'	Employs modals and adverbs of possibility to speculate 'it may be perhaps it could' alongside a range of conditional clauses to support abstract thinking.	Employs modals and adverbs of possibility to speculate 'it may be perhaps it could' alongside a range of conditional clauses to support abstract thinking.
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--	-----------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Begins to speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English.	Begins to speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English.	Frequently speaks audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English.	Frequently speaks audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English.	Can speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English.  Enunciates clearly.	Can speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English.  Enunciates clearly.
Uses a louder voice when addressing the class. There may be limited control, e.g. shouting. Speaks more quietly in 1:1 and group settings.  Makes eye contact with the other children in the group.  Speaks in full sentences rather than fragments or phrases.	Uses a louder voice when addressing the class or in a whole school assembly. There may be limited control, e.g. shouting. Speaks more quietly in 1:1 and group settings.  Makes eye contact with the other children in the group.  Speaks in grammatically sound sentences (e.g. 'We went to town'. Rather than 'We went town')	Can control their volume to meet the level required for the interaction.  Speaks at a measured pace.  Chooses the correct determiner depending on the starting letter of the following word (an apple; a bat).	Can control their volume to meet the level required for the interaction.  Most subject and verb choices agree. (e.g. was/were; did/done).	Varies pace for effect (E.g. Speaking faster to shows excitement or action; slowing their pace to deliver complex information). Uses Standard English routinely when addressing an audience.	Uses Standard English routinely when addressing an audience. This includes using formal features of Standard English such as the subjunctive form for highly formal interactions.

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Begins to participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates.	Begins to participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates.	Frequently participates in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates.	Frequently participates in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates.	Can participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates.	Can participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates.
Use the learning environment and equipment to role play and improvise. E.g the home corner and small world figures.  Joins in with discussions led by an adult.	Present their work to the rest of the class.  Participate in short plays and performances.  Creates improvisations, for example to explore how a character was feeling in a story.	Memorise and deliver lines in a performance or play.	Structure their ideas so that they can debate their point of view clearly and coherently.  Deliver lines in a performance or play effectively.	Prepare for debates by thinking about the opposing views as well as their own arguments.	Understands the different purposes of these activities and can adapt their spoken language use to suit each outcome. E.g which tasks require formal/informal language structures.

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Begins to gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s).	Begins to gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s).	Frequently gains, maintains and monitors the interest of the listener(s).	Frequently gains, maintains and monitors the interest of the listener(s).	Can gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s).  Can use rhetorical	Can gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s).  Sometimes uses
Prepares for addressing a listener by rehearsing what they say. More often when speaking to a small group.	Uses artefacts and objects to support their talk. For example, bringing a special item to share before describing it in Show and Tell activities.	Speaks directly to their audience. Begins to choose words for effect (e.g. alliteration, rhythm and rhyme).	Thinks about how to gain the listener's attention. E.g. starting with a joke or anecdote.  Uses prosodic skills such as pausing after sentences or raising the tone of their voice to show excitement or a point of high tension in narration.	devices such as the pattern of three or comparing and contrasting.  Stresses important words for effect or to draw attention to important information.  Uses gesticulation and facial expressions to support meaning.	figurative language techniques (e.g. idioms, hyperbole & humour) to engage their audience.  Changes their tone of voice to maintain interest.  Repeats important information if they feel their listener has not heard or understood.

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Begins to consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others.  Agrees and disagrees simply: 'I like what x said'; 'I think that too'; 'I don't agree'  Begins to consider and evaluates different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others.  Agrees and disagrees simply, beginning to justify their point of view: 'I like what x said, I think that too because'  Begins to consider and evaluates different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others.  Is able to disagree agreeably.	Frequently considers and evaluates different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others.  Uses sentence stems and classroom models to practise encouraging other children to contribute.  Is able to organise contributions into categories (e.g. for/ against).	Can consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others.  Encourages other participants to engage in discussion.  Can summarise the main points of a conversation.  Is able to balance opposing views.	Can consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others.  Notices who has and hasn't contributed, managing who they draw into discussions.  Uses adverbials such as however, furthermore, on the other hand etc. to link ideas logically and cohesively.
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Begins to select and use appropriate registers for effective communication.	Begins to select and use appropriate registers for effective communication.	Frequently selects and uses appropriate registers for effective communication.	Frequently selects and uses appropriate registers for effective communication.	Can select and use appropriate registers for effective communication.	Can select and use appropriate registers for effective communication.
Shows awareness of appropriate vocabulary choices for different situations. E.g.at school it is most appropriate to ask: May I go to the toilet? Rather than, Can I go to the loo?	Begins to choose words that reflect the required register for an interaction. E.g. Saying 'Hi, how are you?' when greeting a friend compared to 'Hello Sir, how can I help you with those books?' when greeting a teacher.	Chooses full versions of words rather than contractions when speaking more formally.	Increasingly aware of the need to adapt language choices to suit the purpose and audience they are speaking to. For example, choosing to use formal vocabulary when addressing the local councillor or MP at	Understands that slang and contracted forms are suitable for dialogue, in role play and personal conversations but that formal language structures should be used in the classroom and when talking to visitors to the school.	Knows when different registers are appropriate (e.g. when role playing a conversation with a friend compared to undertaking a formal debate). Can draw on their vocabulary knowledge of more a presentation compared to improvising	Considers their audience when selecting	formal language when required.

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

a play based on a ful class novel.	a play based on a funny class novel.	lass novel. structure, e.g when	Can use Standard English structures such addressing younger children compared to adults.	as the subjunctive mood to hypothesise or sound highly formal.

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Progression of skills - Spoken Language

Begins to listen and respond appropriately to familiar adults and their peers.  Looks at the person speaking.  Answers questions: 'Yes, that's my favourite too.'	Begins to ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge.  'I don't understand x, can you help me?'	Begins to use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary.  Uses classroom and personal word banks.  Begins to apply what has been learned, for example when a word begins with	Begins to articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions.  Begins to use 'because' to make simple justifications drawing on personal experiences.' I like dogs because my Nan has one'.	Begins to give well- structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings. Use storymaps to recall events.	Begins to maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments.  Responds to questions and comments when prompted.
May need encouraging to expand on their answers, for example after nodding or replying with a single word response.		un- it's meaning is the opposite of the root word; words that end in -ed are likely to be verbs.	Begins to disagree politely. E.g. maintains a polite tone of voice.	Use simple adverbials of time to order events (e.g. first, next, after that).  Express their own feelings using some simple emotional language.	Takes turns as directed in group or whole class discussions.

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Begins to use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas.  Takes a personal approach: 'I think'  Uses role play including classroom areas such as the home corner, to imagine and explore ideas.	Begins to speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English.  Uses a louder voice when addressing the class. There may be limited control, e.g. shouting. Speaks more quietly in 1:1 and group settings.  Makes eye contact with the other children in the group.	Begins to participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates.  Use the learning environment and equipment to role play and improvise. E.g the home corner and small world figures.  Joins in with discussions led by an adult.	Begins to gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s).  Prepares for addressing a listener by rehearsing what they say. More often when speaking to a small group.	Begins to consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others.  Agrees and disagrees simply: 'I like what x said'; 'I think that too'; 'I don't agree'	Begins to select and use appropriate registers for effective communication.  Shows awareness of appropriate vocabulary choices for different situations. E.g. at school it is most appropriate to ask: May I go to the toilet? Rather than, Can I go to the loo?
,	Speaks in full sentences rather than fragments or phrases.

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Progression of skills - Spoken Language

Begins to listen and respond appropriately to a wider range of adults and their peers.  Looks at the person speaking.  Understands how to answer questions in full sentences. 'Yes, I like that character too.'	Begins to ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge.  'I don't understand x, can you help me?'  'I've finished, what should I do now?'  'Is this right?	Begins to use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary.  Uses classroom and personal word banks, and dictionaries.  Begins to apply what has been learned, for example knowing that the suffixes -er and -est build comparative adjectives.	Begins to articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions.  Uses 'because' to make simple justifications drawing on personal experiences and opinions. 'I like this book [about zoos] because I like animals'.  Uses sentence stems to support polite disagreement e.g. That's interesting but I think	Begins to give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings.  Use graphic organisers to support talk for different purposes (e.g. timelines to retell chronological events).  Use simple conjunctions to support descriptions, explanations and narratives (e.g. and, but, so, because, if).  Use an increasing range of emotional language to describe their own and others' feelings (synonyms for simple emotional language).	Begins to maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments.  Understands the need to take turns. Uses signals such as a raised hand to show their intention to contribute in a class discussion.  May need to use sentence starters or other classroom prompts to help with their responses.
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Begins to use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas.  Takes a personal approach: 'I think' or after group work: 'We think'  Uses props such as small world figures and puppets to explore and imagine ideas.  Begins to speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English.  Uses a louder voice when addressing the class or in a whole school assembly. There may be limited control, e.g. shouting. Speaks more quietly in 1:1 and group settings.  Makes eye contact with the other children in the group.  Speaks in grammatically sound sentences (e.g. 'We went to town'. Rather than 'We went town').	Begins to participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates.  Present their work to the rest of the class.  Participate in short plays and performances.  Creates improvisations, for example to explore how a character was feeling in a story.	Begins to gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s).  Uses artefacts and objects to support their talk. For example, bringing a special item to share before describing it in Show and Tell activities.	Begins to consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others.  Agrees and disagrees simply, beginning to justify their point of view: 'I like what x said, I think that too because'	Begins to select and use appropriate registers for effective communication.  Begins to choose words that reflect the required register for an interaction. E.g. Saying 'Hi, how are you?' when greeting a friend compared to 'Hello Sir, how can I help you with those books?' when greeting a teacher.
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Progression of skills - Spoken Language

Frequently listens and responds appropriately to adults and their peers.  Maintains eye contact stopping anything else they may have been doing.  Responds politely to questions and offers examples to questions, such as qualifying with because: 'Yes, I like that character because'	Frequently asks relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge.  Such as seeking to clarify knowledge: 'Is this an example of a traditional tale?'	Frequently uses relevant strategies to build their vocabulary.  Uses word banks, dictionaries and thesauruses.  Makes links to morphological spelling work to identify word families such as teach, teacher, teaching, teaches, headteacher.	Frequently articulates and justifies answers, arguments and opinions.  Uses 'because' and the immediate evidence to support answers, arguments and opinions.  E.g. 'I think zoos are cruel because in this book it says'  Begins to offer opinions that aren't their own.  This could be through role play.	Frequently gives well- structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings.  Organises related information using graphic organisers such as spider diagrams and mindmaps to help.  Begins to summarise the main points.	Frequently maintains attention and participates actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments.  Appreciates the need to take turns.  Uses prompts and sentence starters to encourage other children to participate.
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Frequently uses spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas.  Conditional clauses may be used to support speculation, e.g. 'If x happens'	Frequently speaks audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English.  Can control their volume to meet the level required for the interaction.  Speaks at a measured pace.  Chooses the correct determiner depending on the starting letter of the following word (an apple; a bat).	Frequently participates in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates.  Memorise and deliver lines in a performance or play.	Frequently gains, maintains and monitors the interest of the listener(s).  Speaks directly to their audience. Begins to choose words for effect (e.g. alliteration, rhythm and rhyme).	Frequently considers and evaluates different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others.  Is able to disagree agreeably.	Frequently selects and uses appropriate registers for effective communication.  Chooses full versions of words rather than contractions when speaking more formally.
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Progression of skills - Spoken Language

responds appropriately to adults and their peers.  Maintains eye contact stopping anything else they may have been doing.  Responds politely to questions and offers examples to questions: 'Yes, I like that character too. Mainly because of'  questions to extend their understanding and knowledge.  Such as seeking to clarify knowledge: 'Is this an example of a traditional tale?'  questions to extend their vocabulary.  Uses word banks, dictionaries and thesauruses with growing confidence.  Makes links to morphological spelling work to identify word families such as teach, Is able to	tly articulates and answers, sits and opinions. cause' and te evidence to answers, sits and opinions. of the evidence to answers, sits and opinions. of the evidence to answers, of the and pointions. of the evidence to in this book it of present an that is not their ar planning work of the evidence answers, of the answers of the evidence to answers, of the answers
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Frequently uses spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas.  Begins to make generalised speculations as well as personal ones: 'Some people think'  Conditional clauses may be used to support speculation 'If x happens'	Frequently speaks audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English.  Can control their volume to meet the level required for the interaction.  Most subject and verb choices agree. (e.g. was/were; did/done).	Frequently participates in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates.  Structure their ideas so that they can debate their point of view clearly and coherently.  Deliver lines in a performance or play effectively.	Frequently gains, maintains and monitors the interest of the listener(s).  Thinks about how to gain the listener's attention. E.g. starting with a joke or anecdote.  Uses prosodic skills such as pausing after sentences or raising the tone of their voice to show excitement or a point of high tension in narration.	Frequently considers and evaluates different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others.  Uses sentence stems and classroom models to practise encouraging other children to contribute.  Is able to organise contributions into categories (e.g. for/against).	Frequently selects and uses appropriate registers for effective communication.  Increasingly aware of the need to adapt language choices to suit the purpose and audience they are speaking to. For example, choosing to use formal vocabulary when addressing the local councillor or MP at a presentation compared to improvising a play based on a funny class novel.
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Progression of skills - Spoken Language

Can listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers.  Listens actively maintaining eye contact.  Responds to affirm: 'I think that too' and to deepen understanding: 'That's interesting, is it also the case that'	Can ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge.  Such as making links across a subject area or drawing several strands of information together 'Is that the same as x?' 'Do you think this is similar to when we found out about?'	Can use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary.  Uses dictionaries and thesauruses with increasing effectiveness.  Uses relevant strategies such as their knowledge of prefixes to work out the meaning of words.	Can articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions.  Uses generalised evidence to support their point of view rather than a wholly personal response. E.g. Some people would argue that It's my opinion and that of several others that	Can give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings.  Uses personal notes to help them recall and describe key events and descriptions.  Thinks carefully about how ideas are linked together to create cohesion across and within sections. May use planning templates to help them do this.	Can maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments.  Understands how to encourage conversation in others.  Participates enthusiastically.  Begins to take different doles in group discussions (e.g. chairperson, scribe, summariser).
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Can use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating,	Can speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard	Can participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play,	Can gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s).	Can consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building	Can select and use appropriate registers for effective communication.
hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas.  Uses generalisers: 'some people think' or 'it could be possible to'  Employs modals and adverbs of possibility to speculate 'it may be perhaps it could' alongside a range of conditional clauses to support abstract thinking.	English.  Enunciates clearly.  Varies pace for effect (E.g. Speaking faster to shows excitement or action; slowing their pace to deliver complex information).  Uses Standard English routinely when addressing an audience.	improvisations and debates.  Prepare for debates by thinking about the opposing views as well as their own arguments.	Can use rhetorical devices such as the pattern of three or comparing and contrasting.  Stresses important words for effect or to draw attention to important information.  Uses gesticulation and facial expressions to support meaning.	on the contributions of others.  Encourages other participants to engage in discussion.  Can summarise the main points of a conversation.  Is able to balance opposing views.	Understands that slang and contracted forms are suitable for dialogue, in role play and personal conversations but that formal language structures should be used in the classroom and when talking to visitors to the school.  Considers their audience when selecting vocabulary and sentence structure, e.g when addressing younger children compared to adults.

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Progression of skills - Spoken Language

appropriately to adults and their peers.  Listens actively maintaining eye contact.  Responds to affirm: 'I think that too' and to deepen understanding: 'That's interesting, is it also the case that '	Can ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge. Such as making links across a subject area or drawing treveral strands of information together 'Is that the same as x?' 'Do you think this is similar to when we found out about?'	Can use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary.  Uses dictionaries and thesauruses effectively.  Makes links between words using morphological and etymological knowledge. E.g. 'I know chrono comes from Greek and it means time. I can assume chronologically means in time order'.	Can articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions.  Uses evidence from a range of sources e.g. (generalised knowledge and personal opinion) to justify their answers. This may take the form of several points E.g. 'Some people would argue that In this book it says Furthermore, this video shows that Therefore, I think'	Can give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings.  Can share a complex narrative for example, multiple characters, several events or a non-chronological structure.  Can talk in detail about topics. For example, including many points that are linked cohesively.	Can maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments.  Can take different roles in group discussions (e.g. chairperson, scribe, summariser).  Builds on the contributions of others.
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Believe Embrace Shine Together I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.' Philippians 4:13

Progression of skills - Spoken Language

Can use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining
and exploring ideas.

Uses generalisers: 'some people think...' 'it could be possible to...'

Employs modals and adverbs of possibility to speculate 'it may be... perhaps it could...' alongside a range of conditional clauses to support abstract thinking.

Can speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English.

Enunciates clearly.

Uses Standard English routinely when addressing an audience. This includes using formal features of Standard English such as the subjunctive form for highly formal interactions.

Can participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates.

Understands the different purposes of these activities and can adapt their spoken language use to suit each outcome. E.g which tasks require formal/informal language structures.

Can gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s).

Sometimes uses figurative language techniques (e.g. idioms, hyperbole & humour) to engage their audience.

Changes their tone of voice to maintain interest.

Repeats important information if they feel their listener has not heard or understood.

Can consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others.

Notices who has and hasn't contributed, managing who they draw into discussions.

Uses adverbials such as however, furthermore, on the other hand etc. to link ideas logically and cohesively.

Can select and use appropriate registers for effective communication.

Knows when different registers are appropriate (e.g. when role playing a conversation with a friend compared to undertaking a formal debate). Can draw on their vocabulary knowledge of more formal language when required.

Can use Standard English structures such as the subjunctive mood to hypothesise or sound highly formal.